LXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think him, her, or themselves aggrieved by any Rate or Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, or if in any Case where a Schedule shall have been delivered, and a subsequent Examination shall have taken place as herein-before directed, (except where the Party or Parties to be charged shall have verified his, her, or their Schedule, or shall have answered on Oath or Affirmation all such Questions as shall have been demanded of him, her, or them, by the said respective Commissioners,) any Surveyor or Inspector shall be dissatisfied with the Determination of the said Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Surveyor or Inspector, within forty Days after such Assessment shall be made, and for such Party or Parties respectively, within fourteen Days after Notice of any Assessment made upon him, her, or them, by virtue of this Act, shall have been given or left as aforesaid, but not afterwards, unless special Cause be shewn to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Appeals as herein is mentioned, to appeal to the Commissioners appointed to hear and determine Appeals for the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place where the Matter of such Appeal shall arise, giving ten Days Notice thereof at the least to the said Commissioners; and the said last mentioned Commissioners may, on any such Appeal being entered, summon any Person or Persons, either on the Part of the Party or Parties assessed, or any other Person or Persons whom the said Commissioners shall judge able to give them Information respecting the Particulars mentioned in such Schedule, or on such other Points as they shall think necessary for ascertaining the due Proportions which such Party or Parties assessed ought to pay by virtue of this Act; and the said last mentioned Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine all such Appeals duly made within the Time before limited, and to make such Amendment in the Assessment of the Party appealing or appealed against, either by increasing or diminishing the Sum assessed, as to the said Commissioners shall, under all Circumstances proved to them, appear just and equitable: Provided always, That where the Party assessed appeals from such Assessment, or in case of an Appeal by the Surveyor or Inspector where the Party appealed against shall not have delivered a Schedule to the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, such Party shall, ten Days at least previous to the hearing of such Appeal, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the said last mentioned Commissioners or their Clerk, having taken the Oath herein-before prescribed, a Schedule of Particulars, in Writing, of his, her, or their Income, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (D); and the said Commissioners shall not be at Liberty to relieve from the said Assessment, or to make any Abatement therein, unless the Party or Parties assessed shall, at the Time of hearing such Appeal, verify the Schedule of Particulars delivered by him, her, or them, either on Oath or Affirmation taken before the said Commissioners, or on Affidavit made and taken according to the Directions of this Act, nor unless the Party or Parties assessed, or such Agent, Clerk, or Servant of such Party or Parties assessed, as the said Commissioners shall require to be examined, or some credible Witness or Witnesses on the Behalf of such Party or Parties assessed, shall, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, answer all such Questions, and produce such Conveyances, Instruments, Writings, and Documents, relative to the Income of Persons aggrieved by Assessments, and Surveyors dissatisfied with the Determination of the Commissioners, on a Schedule delivered, (except where it is verified on Oath,) may appeal; the Surveyor, within forty Days after the Assessment made, and the Party within fourteen Days after Notice thereof, (but not afterwards, unless on special Cause shewn,) to the Commissioners of Appeal, giving ten Days Notice.

The said Commissioners may summon the Party charged, and Witnesses; and on hearing the Appeal, may amend the Assessment. [See c. 42. § 9.]

If the Party assessed appeal,

(or the Surveyor, &c. where no Schedule is delivered,) of such Party or Parties assessed, as the Commissioners shall judge necessary to enable them to ascertain the true Sum in which the said Party or Parties assessed ought to be charged.

he must, ten Days at least before the Hearing, deliver to the Commissioners of Appeal, or their sworn Clerk, a Schedule of his Income; [see c. 22. Sched. A.] but no Relief shall be afforded him, unless he verify the Schedule on Oath, nor unless he, or his Agent, shall answer all Questions asked, and produce all Writings, &c. demanded by the Commissioners.

Though a Party swear to his Schedule, the Surveyor may, on declaring himself dissatisfied with the Commissioners' Determination, demand a Case from them, to be sent to the Commissioners of Appeal, according to whose Opinion the Assessment shall be settled.

LXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in any Case where the Party assessed shall have verified the Particulars contained in his or her Schedule of Income upon Oath, and where the Surveyor or Inspector shall nevertheless apprehend the Determination made by the said Commissioners to be contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or that they have disallowed any Surcharge, or allowed any Deduction contrary to the same, and shall then declare himself dissatisfied with such Determination, it shall and may be lawful for such Surveyor or Inspector to require the said Commissioners to state specially and sign the Case upon which the Question arose, together with their Determination thereupon; which Case the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them then present, are hereby required to state and sign accordingly, and to cause the same to be by him transmitted to the Commissioners of Appeal, who are hereby required, with all convenient Speed, to return an Answer to the Case so transmitted, with their Opinion thereupon subscribed thereto, according to which Opinion so certified, the Assessment, which shall have been the Cause of such Appeal, shall be altered or confirmed.

In Appeals on Behalf of Persons Abroad, or prevented from attending by Sickness, &c. the Commissioners may postpone the Hearing, or admit other Proof of the Schedule than the Party's Oath; and may stop the levying of the Sum assessed.

LXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if Appeal shall be made by virtue of this Act on the Behalf of any Person or Persons who shall be absent out of the Realm, or be prevented by Sickness or other sufficient Cause from attending in Person the hearing of such Appeal, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for hearing and determining such Appeal to postpone from Time to Time the hearing of such Appeal, or to admit other Proof of the Schedule than the Oath or Affirmation of such Party, if the said Commissioners shall be satisfied of the Truth of the Reason alledged for such Delay or Admission of other Proof; and further, that it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct the levying of the Sum so assessed to be stayed until the Determination of the Appeal postponed for any Cause before mentioned.

Persons refusing or neglecting to make out and deliver Lists and Statements required, to forfeit not exceeding 20l.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person required in pursuance of this Act to make out and deliver any List, Statement, or Schedule herein described, shall neglect or refuse to make out and sign such List, Statement, and Schedule, or either of them, as the Case may require, and deliver or cause the same to be delivered to the Assessor or Assessors within the Time herein mentioned, he or she so refusing or offending shall, for every such Default or Offence, forfeit a Sum not exceeding the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be recovered as any Penalty may be recovered under the said Act, or this Act.

Commissioners under this Act shall be assessed by the Commissioners of Appeal; [or by Commercial Commissioners, c. 42. § 6.] and the Statements delivered by Commissioners shall be transmitted to the Commissioners of Appeal, who shall act in all such Respects as Commissioners do in others; Certificates of such Assessments shall be transmitted to the Commissioners, to be certified and returned, and the Assessment levied and collected, as in other Cases.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for hearing and determining Appeals, in any County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, shall assess all and every the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, within the same County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place; or within any City, Town, or Place being a County of itself, situate within such County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place; and whenever any List or Statement shall be delivered in pursuance of this Act by any such Commissioner for the Purposes thereof, or on his Behalf, or on his Default, such List or Statement shall be forthwith transmitted to the Commissioners for hearing and determining Appeals for such County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, who shall have Authority, and are hereby required to assess and determine the Sum which such Commissioner ought to contribute in pursuance of this Act; and such Commissioners for hearing and determining Appeals shall and may act in all Respects therein in the same Manner, and have and use the same Powers and Authorities in all Respects therein, as the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act can or may act, and have and use, in Cases of other Persons having any Income, chargeable by virtue of this Act: Provided always, That the said Commissioners for hearing and determining Appeals shall transmit, or cause to be transmitted, a Certificate of the Assessment so to be made to the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, in order that the Amount thereof may be certified in the Duplicates of Assessments to be made out and returned in pursuance of this Act, and collected and levied accordingly.

If Commissioners or Commissioners of Appeal think themselves aggrieved by the Assessment made on them by each other respectively, they may appeal against the same

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Commissioner for the Purposes of this Act shall think himself aggrieved by any Rate or Assessment to be made by the said Commissioners for hearing and determining Appeals by virtue of this Act, or if any Commissioner for hearing and determining Appeals shall think himself aggrieved by the Rate or Assessment to be made by the said Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such respective Commissioner, within fourteen Days after Notice of any such Assessment made upon him by virtue of this Act, to appeal to the Commissioners for hearing and determining Appeals to be appointed in and for some County, Riding, Shire, or Stewartry immediately adjoining the County, Riding, Shire, or Stewartry, where such Cause of Appeal shall arise, at the Election of the Party preferring such Appeal; and it shall be lawful for the said last mentioned Commissioners of Appeal to hear and determine the Matter so referred to them, in the same Manner, in all Respects, as if the Cause of Appeal had

If Commiſſioners in any Caſe diſallow Application of a Surveyor, &c. he or his Succeſſor may reſort to the Commiſſioners of Appeal, and if they determine in his Favour, they ſhall refer back to the Commiſſioners, to act as if they had originally allowed ſuch Application.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That the firſt Aſſeſſment to be made by virtue of this Act ſhall be made for one Year, at the reſpective Rates before mentioned, from the fifth Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, until the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred; and every ſubſequent Aſſeſſment ſhall be made for one Year, from the fifth Day of April yearly; and the ſeveral Sums aſſeſſed by any ſuch Aſſeſſment ſhall be payable in ſix Inſtalments at the Times following; videlicet, the fifth Day of June, the fifth Day of Auguſt, the fifth Day of October, the fifth Day of December, the fifth Day of February, and the fifth Day of April yearly, by even and equal Portions; the firſt of the ſaid Inſtalments to be payable on the fifth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, and the Payments ſhall be made within ten Days from the Day when the ſame ſhall be payable by virtue of this Act; and it ſhall be lawful for the reſpective Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of this Act to iſſue out and deliver to the Collectors appointed to collect the Duties on Houſes, Windows, or Lights, or any other the Duties under the Management of the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes for the Time being, their Warrants for the ſpeedy collecting and levying the ſaid Rates as the ſame ſhall become payable, by ſix Inſtalments, commencing in each Year from the fifth Day of April yearly, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and that ſuch Part thereof as cannot be ſo levied and collected, ſhall be recoverable as a Debt upon Record to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Person ordinarily residing in any other Parish or Place than the Parish or Place of his or her Residence at the Time of Service of Notice to him or her, or to the Householder of the Dwelling House where such Person did reside at the Time of such Service, or at the Time of such general Notice as aforesaid, and every Person removing from the Parish or Place where he or she did reside at the Time of such Service, being respectively desirous not to be charged in such Parish or Place, shall give Notice thereof to the Assessors of the said Parish or Place, or one of them; and if any Person shall remove from the Parish or Place of his or her Residence without giving such Notice, and with Intent to evade the Payment of the Rates hereby granted, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered as any Penalty may be recovered under the said first-recited Act; and the Removal shall not in such Case affect the Assessment to be made in the Parish or Place of such his or her last Residence.

Removing without Notice with Intent to evade the Duties, shall incur the Penalty of 50l. and the Assessment shall remain in force.

Persons residing in different Divisions shall deliver a Statement of their proposed Contribution in each, or a Declaration in what other Place they are to be charged; and may elect either to pay the Whole in one Division, or in proportionate Parts in both Divisions: [See c. 22. Sched. A. 1. No. 3. and the Note to that Form:]

LXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Person having two or more Dwelling Houses, and residing in different Divisions of Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, shall, in each of such Divisions, be required to deliver, in Manner before directed, a Statement of the whole Sum which he or she is willing to contribute, or a Declaration in lieu thereof, declaring in what other Place he or she is desirous of being charged; and such Person may, at the Time of delivering such Statement or Declaration, elect to pay the Whole of the Rate in either of such Divisions, on giving Notice in Writing of such his or her Intention to the respective Assessors within the Parishes or Places where such Dwelling Houses are situate, or may elect to pay the same by Payments to be made in different Divisions, in such Proportions as the Party shall in such Notices express; provided that if in any such Case no Statement shall be delivered, or a Declaration in lieu thereof, nor any Notice shall be given as before directed, at the Time of the Delivery of any Statement, then and in every such Case, an Assessment upon the Whole of the Income of such Person shall be made in each Division where such Dwelling Houses are situated; provided that any Person who shall be over-rated by reason thereof shall be relieved therefrom, upon Appeal, on Proof before the respective Commissioners, of the Amount of such Overcharge upon such Appellant, and upon his or her making an Election where the Rates which ought to be charged upon such Person shall be paid.

If a Person assessed in one Parish shall be again assessed in another, the Commissioners where he pays shall grant him a Certificate thereof, and the other Assessment shall be vacated.

LXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, having been assessed in any Parish or Place for his or her Income, shall be again assessed in any other Parish or Place in respect of the same Income, in every such Case the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, acting for the Parish or Place where such Person or Persons shall elect to pay his, her, or their Contribution, or two of them at the least, shall, on any Application for that Purpose, grant a Certificate of such Assessment, signed by them, gratis; and upon Proof of such Assessment before the Commissioners acting for such other Parish or Place, either by the Production of such Certificate, or in Default thereof by other Evidence to their Satisfaction, the said last mentioned Commissioners shall cause the Assessment of such Person or Persons so again assessed to be amended or vacated, as the Case may require, so that such Person or Persons shall not be charged more than by this Act he, she, or they ought to be charged.

Income shall in all Cases be estimated according to the Directions of this Act and the Schedule annexed, or according to the best of the Knowledge and Belief of the Party. [See c. 22. Sched. A.]

LXXVII. And in order that the Estimates of Annual Income chargeable by virtue of this Act may be made according to known Rules, and with as much Uniformity as the respective Cases will admit, be it further enacted, That in all Cases the Income chargeable by virtue of this Act shall be estimated according to the Rules and Directions prescribed by this Act, and the Schedule hereunto annexed, as far as the same respectively are applicable to such Income; and in all Cases where the same are not applicable, then according to the best of the Knowledge and Belief of the Person whose Duty it shall be to estimate or compute such Income, whether such Estimate shall be made by any Person chargeable by virtue of this Act, on his or her own Account, or on the Account of any other, or as an Officer in the Execution of his Duty, as prescribed by this Act; but that it shall not be lawful, in computing such Income, to make any other or greater Deductions therefrom than such as are expressly enumerated in this Act, or in the Schedule hereunto annexed, nor to make any Deductions which by the Schedule or the Act are directed not to be made.

Where Income is diminished by any specifick Cause, Commissioners may allow an Abatement.

LXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall prove, to the Satisfaction of the respective Commissioners before-mentioned, that his or her Income chargeable by virtue of this Act has been diminished from any specifick Cause arising after the Time when such Income ought to be computed according to this Act, it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners to make such Abatement as to them shall seem just in respect of such Diminution of Income.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That any Income arising from any Profession, Office, Pension, Stipend, Employment, Trade, or Vocation, shall be estimated either according to the actual Produce of the same Profession, Office, Pension, Stipend, Employment, Trade, or Vocation, in the Year immediately preceding, ceding such Estimate, or by an Average of the Produce of the three Years immediately preceding, at the Option of the Party to be charged in respect thereof, and subject to Diminution within the current Year, in the Manner provided by the said recited Act, every such Year ending on the thirty-first Day of December in each Year, or at such Time of the Year as the Accounts of such Income have been usually made up or completed for that Year, or the same had been received.

mated either according to the actual Produce in the preceding Year, or on the Average Produce of three Years preceding, in the Option of the Party, subject to Diminution within the current Year. [See c. 22. Sched. A. 15th Case.]

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That where in any Case the Income of any Person or Persons, or any Part thereof, in whatever Manner arising, shall be estimated upon any Average of Years according to the Directions of this Act, such Person or Persons shall not be entitled to any Abatement or Allowance in the current or any subsequent Year, by reason of any Variation in the Amount of the Income so arising, nor for any specifick Cause, other than in such Cases where such Person or Persons shall cease to be possessed of the Property, Office, Pension, or Stipend, or shall cease to be engaged in the Profession, Trade, or Employment, from which such Income, or Part of Income, shall have arisen.

Where Income is estimated on an Average of Years, no Abatement shall be allowed in the current Year, except where the Party shall cease to be possessed of the Property, or to be engaged in the Profession whence his Income arises.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Persons engaged in any Trade or Manufacture, in filling up the Statement or Schedule of the Particulars of their Income, or on otherwise computing, in pursuance of this Act, their Income arising from such Trade or Manufacture, to make any Deductions therefrom on Account of any Sums employed, or intended to be employed, in Improvements or as Capital, or on Account of Interest for the Capital by them employed therein, unless for Interest, which they are bound to pay to other Persons for the same; nor for any Sum expended by them in the Course of any one Year (in which the Estimate or Average thereof shall be taken) for Repairs of Premises occupied for the Purpose of such Trade or Manufacture, or for the Supply, or Repairs, or Alterations of any Implements, or Utensils, or Articles employed for the Purpose of such Trade or Manufacture, beyond the Amount of the Sum usually expended for such Purposes, according to an Average of three Years preceding the Year to which such Computation shall relate; nor shall it be lawful for any Person engaged in Trade or Manufacture, and having Property not employed as Capital therein, to make any Deduction from the Income arising from the Property not employed as Capital, by reason of any Diminution of the Capital so employed, during the Period for which such Computation shall be made.

No Deduction shall be made from the Income of Traders, &c. for Sums employed in Improvements, or as Capital, or as Interest of Capital, (except where actually paid to another,) nor for Repairs, Implements, &c. beyond the Average of the three preceding Years, nor from Property not employed as Capital by Reason of any Diminution of Capital.

LXXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Persons engaged in any Trade or Manufacture, or in any Adventure or Concern, in Partnership together, may be jointly charged to the said Rates and Duties, in respect of their Joint Income arising from such Trade or Manufacture, or such Adventure or Concern, under the Firm or Description of their said Business, and that the Return of any one of the said Partners, on Behalf of himself and the others for that Purpose, shall be sufficient Authority for the said Commissioners to charge such Partners jointly in respect of their Income arising from such Trade or Manufacture, or such Adventure or Concern, but nevertheless wholly distinct from any Charge which may be made upon such Persons, or any of them, in respect of any other Income belonging to them, or any of them.

Partners may be jointly charged in respect of their Joint Incomes, and the Return of one Partner shall be sufficient; such Charge shall be distinct from that on their separate Incomes.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if amongst any Persons engaged in Trade or Manufacture, in Partnership together, any Change shall take place in any such Partnership, either by Death or Dissolution of Partnership, as to all or any of the Partners, or by admitting any other Partner therein, within the Period when the Computation of Income ought to be made under this Act, or before the Time of making the Assessment under this Act, or if any Person shall have succeeded to any Trade or Manufacture, or any Adventure or Concern, within such respective Periods as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners, and they, and also the Party or Parties interested, and every Officer acting in the Execution of this Act, shall compute and ascertain the Income of such Partnership, or any of such Partners, or any Person succeeding to such Trade or Manufacture, or Adventure or Concern, according to the Income derived during the respective Periods before-mentioned, notwithstanding such Change therein or Succession to such Business as aforesaid, unless such Partners or Partner, or such Person succeeding to such Business as aforesaid, shall prove, to the Satisfaction of the said respective Commissioners, that the Income of such Person or Persons hath fallen short, or will fall short, for some specifick Cause to be alledged to them, since such Change or Succession took place, or by reason thereof.

In case of Changes in Partnership, the Charges on the Partnership, and on the Partners going out or coming in, shall remain the same; unless a specifick Cause for Diminution is shewn to the Commissioners.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which the Title to any Income shall be uncertain, either by reason of any Contingency to which the same may be subject, or by reason of any Dispute concerning the same, or for any other Cause, then such Income shall be chargeable under this Act separately, according to the Amount thereof, and the Person or Persons (if any) who shall be in the Receipt of such Income, whether on his or her own Account, or on the Behalf of any other Person or Persons, shall deliver a Statement thereof accordingly, and shall pay the Sums chargeable in respect thereof out of such Income; and in case such Income shall be under the Controul or Direction of any Court of Equity, or other Court, in any Suit depending, or otherwise, such Court shall give the necessary Directions for ascertaining the Amount of such Income, and Payment of the Duty chargeable thereon, upon Application in a summary Way of any Trustee or Trustees, or any Person or Persons interested therein, or any Agent or Receiver intrusted with the Receipt thereof, or of any Surveyor or Inspector acting in the Execution of this Act.

Where the Title to Income is uncertain, or in Dispute, the actual Receiver shall give a Statement thereof, and pay the Duty thereon; and Courts of Equity may give the proper Directions, on Application of Trustees, as to Property under their Controul.

LXXXV. And

Income of Infants, under the Controul of Courts of Equity, &c. shall be assessed, and the Duty paid thereon under the Direction of such Court.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That all Income belonging to any Infant, or other Person or Persons, which shall be under the Direction or Controul of any Court of Equity or other Court, in any Suit depending or otherwise, shall be charged and assessed, under the Direction of such Court, in all Cases in which such Income cannot be otherwise charged and assessed under this Act; and such Court shall give all necessary Directions for such Purpose, and for Payment of the Duties which shall be so charged and assessed, in the same Manner as is herein-before directed with respect to Income under the Controul of any Court, the Title whereto shall be uncertain.

Proceedings in such Cases shall be free of Stamp Duty.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Proceedings in any Court, for the Purpose of charging any such Income as aforesaid, and obtaining Payment of the Duties chargeable thereon, shall be free of Stamp Duties, and all Fees and Charges attending the same, except for Writing.

Revenues of Corporations, &c. not applicable to charitable Purposes, shall be charged as other Incomes.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Bodies Politick or Corporate, Companies, Fraternities, or Societies of Persons, whether Corporate or not Corporate, shall be entitled unto any Annual Income to the respective Amounts before specified, (other than and besides any Income applicable to charitable Purposes,) such Annual Income (not applicable to charitable Purposes only) shall be chargeable with such and the like Rates as any other Annual Income of the same Amount will, under and by virtue of this Act, be chargeable with.

No Corporation, &c. shall be chargeable in respect of Income applicable to charitable Purposes, nor the Dividends on which are paid to individual Members: Such Dividends shall be chargeable in the Hands of the Person entitled thereto as they are payable, except Dividends payable to Foreigners not resident in this Kingdom; the Amount of which is to be delivered to an Inspector, &c. in the same Manner as Statements of Income under this Act.

LXXXVIII. CAP. XLIV.

An Act for further continuing, until the first Day of March one thousand eight hundred, an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to empower His Majesty to secure and detain such Persons as His Majesty shall suspect are conspiring against his Person and Government.—[20th May 1799.]

36 Geo. 3. c. 26.

39 Geo. 3. c. 15. recited.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to empower His Majesty to secure and detain such Persons as His Majesty shall suspect are conspiring against his Person and Government, which Act was to continue in force until the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and no longer; but the same, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, that is to say, on the ninth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, was continued until the twenty-first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and no longer: And whereas it is necessary for the publick Safety that the Provisions of the said Act passed in the last Session of Parliament should be further continued;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person who shall be in Prison within the Kingdom of Great Britain at or upon the Day on which this Act shall receive his Majesty's Royal Assent, or at any Time after that Day, by Warrant of his said Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, signed by six of the said Privy Council, or by Warrant signed by any of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, for High Treason, Suspicion of Treason, or treasonable Practices, may be detained in safe Custody, without Bail or Mainprize, until the first Day of March one thousand eight hundred; and that no Judge or Justice of the Peace shall bail or try any such Person so committed, without Order from his said Majesty's Privy Council, signed by six of the said Privy Council, until the said first Day of March one thousand eight hundred; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons who are or shall be imprisoned for High Treason, &c. may be detained till March 1, 1800, &c.

Act in Scotland of 1701, for preventing wrongous Imprisonment, so far as may relate to Treason, &c. suspended till March 1, 1800, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Act made in Scotland in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and one, intituled, An Act for preventing wrongous Imprisonment, and against undue Delays in Trials, in so far as the same may be construed to relate to Cases of Treason and Suspicion of Treason, be suspended until the said first Day of March one thousand eight hundred; and that until the said Day no Judge, Justice of the Peace, or other Officer of the Law in Scotland, shall liberate, try, or admit to Bail, any Person or Persons that is, are, or shall be, in Prison within Scotland, for such Causes as aforesaid, without Order from his said Majesty's Privy Council, signed by six of the said Privy Council.

From March 1, 1800, Persons so committed shall have the Benefit of all Laws providing for the Liberty of the Subject, &c.

III. Provided always, That, from and after the said first Day of March one thousand eight hundred, the said Persons so committed shall have the Benefit and Advantage of all Laws and Statutes any Way relating to or providing for the Liberty of the Subjects of this Realm.

Privileges of Parliament not invalidated by this Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to invalidate the ancient Rights and Privileges in Parliament, or to the Imprisonment or Detaining of any Member of either House of Parliament, during the Sitting of such Parliament, until the Matter of which he stands suspected suspected be first communicated to the House of which he is a Member, and the Consent of the said House obtained for his Commitment or Detainer.

V. Provided nevertheless, That any Person or Persons in Prison at the Time of passing this Act, against whom any Bill or Bills of Indictment for High Treason have been already found, shall and may be tried on such Indictment, as if this Act had never passed.

Persons against whom Indictments for High Treason are already found, to be tried thereon.

VI. 'And whereas divers Persons are now in Custody on Charges of High Treason, Suspicion of High 'Treason and treasonable Practices, under Warrants from one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of 'State, and who have been secured and detained in Custody under the Authority of the said recited Acts; 'and it may be highly important that such Persons as have been or shall be secured and detained on such 'Charges under the Authority of the said recited Acts, or of this Act, should be kept wholly separate and 'apart from each other, so as to prevent all Communication between them and with other Persons, except 'such Communication as his Majesty may think fit to permit, and under such Restrictions as may be ad-'visable; and it has been found by Experience to be very difficult to keep such Persons separate as aforesaid, 'and to prevent such Communication as aforesaid, without sending such Persons to different Places of Con-'finement; and Doubts may arise how far the Powers of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, to 'change the Places of Confinement of Persons so committed extends; and it is expedient to provide that 'the same shall not be so exercised, as to deprive the Persons so committed of any Right to be tried or dis-'charged, which they might respectively have had, if their respective Places of Confinement had not been 'changed:' Now, to obviate all Doubts and Difficulty in respect thereof, be it further enacted and declared, That it shall be lawful for one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, as he shall see Occasion, to order any Person committed to any Gaol or other Prison on any Charge of High Treason, Suspicion of High Treason, or treasonable Practices, either before or after Indictment found, to be conveyed to and detained in any other Gaol or other Prison, until discharged by due Course of Law, and to issue all Warrants necessary for such Purposes: Provided always nevertheless, That no Person who shall be removed by any such Warrant as aforesaid, shall be by Means of such Removal deprived of such Right to be tried or discharged, as such Person would by Law have been entitled to if not so removed; and in every Case in which any such Person would have been entitled to have been tried or discharged, if such Person had continued in the Gaol or Prison to which such Person was before committed, it shall be lawful for such Person to apply to be bailed or discharged in the same Manner as such Person might have done if such Person had remained in the Gaol or Prison to which such Person was before committed as aforesaid.

Any one of his Majesty's Secretaries of State may order any Person committed on any Charge of High Treason, &c. to be conveyed from one Prison to another.

Such Removal not to deprive any Person of any Right to be tried or discharged, &c.

VII. 'And whereas, in the present disturbed State of the Kingdom of Ireland, it has been found necessary 'to send divers Persons who had been committed to Prison in Ireland on Charges of High Treason, Suspicion 'of High Treason, or treasonable Practices, to Great Britain, for safe Custody, and for the Purpose of pre-'venting improper Intercourse between such Persons and other Persons engaged or suspected of being en-'gaged in the like Treasons or treasonable Practices; and it may be found expedient to send other Persons 'to Great Britain under like Circumstances;' be it enacted, That every Person who hath been sent to Great Britain as aforesaid, before the passing of this Act, and every Person who, after the passing of this Act, shall be sent to Great Britain for safe Custody, by order of the Lord Lieutenant, or Governor General, or other Chief Governor or Chief Governors of Ireland, and of six or more of his Majesty's Privy Council of the said Kingdom, shall and may be detained in Custody in this Kingdom, in such Place of safe Custody as to his Majesty shall seem fit, provided such Person shall be charged with High Treason, Suspicion of High Treason, or treasonable Practices, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State: Provided always nevertheless, That no Person shall be detained as aforesaid, so as to prevent the Trial or Discharge of such Person in due Course of Law, whenever such Person shall by the Law of Ireland be entitled to such Trial or Discharge; but in all Cases in which any Person so detained would by the Law of Ireland, if in Custody in that Kingdom, be entitled to be tried or discharged, it shall be lawful for such Person to apply to the Court of King's Bench in England, or to any Judge of that Court, or to the Court of Justiciary in Scotland, or to any Judge of that Court, to be discharged; and if it shall appear to such Court or to such Judge that such Person, if in Custody in Ireland, would be entitled to be tried or discharged, it shall be lawful for such Court or such Judge to order such Person to be discharged, or to be sent to Ireland, to be dealt with according to Law.

Persons charged with High Treason, &c. by Warrant of a Principal Secretary of State, and sent from Ireland to Great Britain, by Order of the Lord Lieutenant and of six Privy Councellors, may be detained in Custody in such Place as his Majesty shall think fit.

But when entitled by the Law of Ireland to be tried or discharged, such Persons may apply to the Court of King's Bench in England, or Court of Justiciary in Scotland, or one of the Judges of those Courts, who shall order them to be discharged, or sent to Ireland.

VIII. 'And whereas many Persons engaged in the late Rebellion in Ireland, and in other treasonable 'Practices there, have fled from Ireland, and are now in Great Britain; and other Persons may come from 'Ireland to Great Britain under the like Circumstances; and it may be expedient, not only to arrest such 'Persons, for the Purpose of sending them to Ireland to be tried for such Offences, but also to secure and 'detain such Persons in Great Britain until they can be properly sent to Ireland, to be tried or discharged in 'due Course of Law;' be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to order any Person who shall be in Custody upon any Charge of High Treason, Suspicion of High Treason, or treasonable Practices, done or committed in Ireland, to be secured and detained in Great Britain, until such Person can be properly sent to Ireland, to be tried or discharged in due Course of Law: Provided always nevertheless, That no Person shall be detained as aforesaid, so as to prevent the Trial or Discharge of such Person in due Course of Law, whenever such Person shall by the Law of Ireland be entitled to such Trial, or discharged; but in all Cases in which any Person so detained would by the Law of Ireland, if in Custody in that Kingdom, be entitled to be tried or

One of his Majesty's Secretaries of State may order any Person in Custody on a Charge of High Treason, &c. committed in Ireland, to be detained in Great Britain until he can be properly sent to Ireland, to be tried or discharged: And when entitled to be tried or discharged, such Person may apply to the Court of King's Bench in England, or Court of Justiciary in Scotland, or one of the Judges, who shall order him to be discharged or sent to Ireland.

or discharged, it shall be lawful for such Person to apply to the Court of King's Bench in England, or to any Judge of that Court, or to the Court of Justiciary in Scotland, or to any Judge of that Court, to be discharged; and if it shall appear to such Court or such Judge that such Person, if in Custody in Ireland, would be entitled to be tried or discharged, it shall be lawful for such Court or such Judge to order such Person to be discharged, or to be sent to Ireland, to be dealt with according to Law.

Continuance of this Act, March 1, 1800.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the said first Day of March one thousand eight hundred and no longer.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Act of the Parliament of Scotland 1701.

11 Geo. 1. c. 16. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Year one thousand seven hundred and one, intituled, An Act for preventing wrongous Imprisonment, and against undue Delays in Trials, the Sums for which Bail was ordered to be taken in Criminal Informations were not to exceed six thousand Merks for a Nobleman, three thousand Merks for a landed Gentleman, one thousand Merks for any other Gentleman and Burgess, and three hundred Merks for any other inferior Person, all Money of Scotland: And whereas by an Act, made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for more effectual disarming the Highlands in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and for the better securing the Peace and Quiet of that Part of the Kingdom; reciting, that it was found, by Experience, that the Sums for which Bail is to be taken on any Criminal Information, in pursuance of the said Act of the Parliament of Scotland, were too small and disproportioned to the Danger of the Criminals escaping from the Punishment appointed by Law, it was enacted, That, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, it might and should be lawful to and for all and every Magistrate, Judge, and Court of Judicature within Scotland, who by the said Act above recited were, in case of Criminal Informations and Accusations, directed to limit the Bail by them to be taken to the several and respective Sums above-mentioned, to extend the Bail to be given in the said several and respective Cases to double the Sums provided by the aforesaid Act, if he or they, upon the Circumstances of the Case, should think fit: And whereas it is again found by Experience, that the Sums to which Bail was extended by the said last recited Act in Criminal Informations and Accusations, however adequate they may have been at this last Period to the general State of the Country, and to the Circumstances of Individuals, do no longer bear any suitable Relation thereto, and have become insufficient for compelling Persons accused of Crimes to stand their Trials, and tend to render ineffectual and nugatory the most salutary Laws, to bring into Contempt the Authority of the Magistrate, and to afford a Temptation and Facility to the Commission of Crimes: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Magistrate, Judge, and Court of Judicature, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, who by the said last recited Act were, in Cases of Criminal Informations and Accusations, directed to limit the Bail by them to be taken to double the Sums provided by the aforesaid Act of the Parliament of Scotland, to extend the Bail to be given in the said several and respective Cases, if he or they upon the Circumstances of the Case shall think fit, to the several and respective Sums following; videlicet, to one thousand two hundred Pounds Sterling for a Nobleman, six hundred Pounds Sterling for a landed Gentleman, three hundred Pounds Sterling for any other Gentleman, Burgess, or Householder, and to sixty Pounds Sterling for any inferior Person.

CAP. LV.

An Act for encouraging the Improvement of Lands subject to the Servitude of Thirlage, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.—[13th June 1799.]

'WHEREAS it is found by Experience, that the Servitude of Thirlage, and Right of Mill Services incident thereto, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, are very unfavourable to the general Improvement of the Country, by checking the Industry of the Occupiers of the Ground, and by occasioning troublesome and expensive Litigation; and that it is highly expedient that it should be allowed to Persons subject to such Servitude to compensate or to commute the same by a fixed annual Payment, in lieu and Satisfaction of the said Right of Thirlage, and of all Services, Prestations, and Restrictions, thereto incident or pertaining, and in some Cases to make an entire and complete Purchase of the same for a fair and adequate Price:' Therefore be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Proprietor or Proprietors of any Lands or Tenements thirled or astricted to any Mill, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or to the Proprietor of any Mill to which the Lands or Tenements of any other Person or Persons are thirled or astricted, who shall be desirous to have such Thirlage or Astriction changed or commuted into such annual Payment, to apply to his Majesty's Sheriff or Steward Depute of the County or Stewartry in which such Lands or Tenements, and Mills, are situated, or to his Substitute, by a Petition, setting forth such his or their Desire, and specifying the Lands and Tenements so thirled, which he or they is or are desirous should be freed from such Thirlage, and the Mill or Mills to which such Lands or Tenements are so thirled, and also the Nature of the Thirlage, the several Species of Corn or Grain over which it is extended, the Quantity of Multure paid for grinding every Sort of Grain, the Services dependent on the Right, and the total Amount of the Multures and other Dues claimed or allowed to be due; which Petition the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, shall order to be served on the other Party or Parties interested in the said Thirlage, and on the Tenant or Tenants of the Mill or Mills described in the said Petition, and shall also cause an edictal Citation to be made of all Parties having or pretending to have Interest in the said Thirlage, at the Church or Churches of the Parish or Parishes within which the Mill, and also the Lands thirled thereto, are situated, and the Party or Parties on whom such Petition is served shall, within forty Days after such Service and Citation, if within Scotland, or if furth thereof, then within sixty Days, lodge with the Sheriff or Steward's Clerk their Answers to the Petition, (and if any of the said Subjects are entailed, on the next Substitute Heir of Entail within the Kingdom, who would succeed failing the Heir in Possession and his Family,) and shall therein set forth all Objections they may have, either to any further Procedure or to the Matter of the said Petition; and they shall also state every Claim, Demand, or Deduction, which they are either then or afterwards to make or crave; which Petition and Answers the Sheriff, or Steward Depute, or his Substitute, shall immediately take into Consideration, and within thirty Days shall make an Order or Decree finding and declaring the precise Matters in the said Petition and Answers, which are relevant to pass to the Knowledge of a Jury in Manner after mentioned, and twenty Days from the Date of such Order or Decree having elapsed, or in case of any Advocation, Suspension, or other Stay, by the Authority of a superior Court, within ten Days after such Advocation, Suspension, or other Stay, has been discussed and removed, the Sheriff, or Steward Depute, or his Substitute, shall pronounce an Interlocutor, appointing a Jury to be summoned on a certain Day, to be expressed in the said Interlocutor, at the Distance of not less than thirty and not more than forty Days from the Date of such Interlocutor, to give their Verdict or Determination on the Matters contained in the said Petition, and Answers and Decree made thereon by the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, or by a superior Court, in such Manner, and for such Purpose as herein-after is directed; and the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute, or his Substitute,

Proprietors of Lands thirled, or of Mills to which Lands are thirled, may apply to have the Thirlage commuted, to the Sheriff or Steward Depute, or Substitute, who shall proceed as herein directed.

Substitute, is hereby directed and required to summon an Assize of at least twenty-one impartial and disinterested men, each of whom shall be an Heritor or Tenant of Land, paying thirty Pounds Sterling of yearly Rent within the said County or Stewartry, or in the Case of Heritors occupying their own Lands, then of thirty Pounds Scots of valued Rent, on such Day as shall be mentioned in the Interlocutor aforesaid; which Assize being called on the said Day, the Number of Persons then attending on the said Assize shall be reduced to nine by each Party, (that is, the Proprietor of the Mill on the one Part, and the Proprietor or Proprietors of the thirled Lands or Tenements on the other,) striking off alternately, beginning on the Part of the Proprietor of the Mill, or in case of any of the Parties not appearing, by the Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, striking off for and on Behalf of such Party, till the Number be reduced to nine, who shall be sworn, and constitute a Jury for the Determination of the annual Value of the Thirlage Services and Prestations thereto annexed, which is submitted to their Consideration; before which Jury, and the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, the said Petition, and Answers and Decree, together with such Evidence as any of the Parties may incline, shall be laid; which Evidence shall be taken in Writing, and remain for four Years at least upon Record in the Court where it was taken; and after deliberating thereon, and hearing Parties and their Procurators, if they shall desire to be heard, and upon a due Consideration of all the Circumstances of the Case, the said Jury shall, by their Verdict or Determination, fix and ascertain the Amount of such annual Payment, in Grain of such Kinds, and in such Quantity and Amount, as to the said Jury shall appear to be a just, fair, and equal Value and Compensation for the said Right of Thirlage, and all and every Service, Prestation, or Restriction thereto annexed or incident; of which Verdict or Determination an Abbreviate shall be registered by any of the Parties in the General Register of Sasines at Edinburgh, or the particular Register for the said County or Stewartry, within sixty Days after the pronouncing of such Verdict or Determination: Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall invalidate or infringe the Right competent to the Proprietor of any Mill for supporting and repairing the Mill Dam, and the Ledd or Aqueduct conducting the Water to such Mill, by taking Stones, Turf, or other Materials, from the Thirled Lands of any neighbouring Heritor along which the said Aqueduct passes, or of deepening or clearing the same, conform to Use and Wont.

Act not to infringe the Right of taking Materials for supporting Mill Dams, &c.

II. 'And whereas the said Petition and Answers may contain Matters of Law touching Rights of 'Thirlage, whereto the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, has not a competent Jurisdic-'tion;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful to the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, and they are hereby empowered and authorized to decide and determine, by their Order or Decree, on the said Petition and Answers, all Questions in Law therein contained, respecting the Nature, Quality, and Extent of the Thirlage to be valued, and Services, Prestations, and Restrictions thereto incident, or the Claims, Demands, and Deductions, made or craved by either of the Parties; any Law or Practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sheriff, &c. may determine all Questions in Law contained in Petitions and Answers.

III. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful to the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, to pronounce any Judgment or Decree, finding or declaring Lands to be thirled or astricted to a Mill, where the Proprietor of the Lands denies the Existence of any such Right of Thirlage, unless the other Party produce an Extract of a Decree of Declarator pronounced by the Court of Session, or sufficient Evidence thereof in Proof of his Right, and that the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, shall (such Production not being made) dismiss the Petition in so far as regards the Lands which are denied to be thirled, and proceed only to the Valuation of the Thirlage of those Lands which are confessed to be thirled, as in Manner is before directed.

Sheriff, &c. not to declare Land thirled, if the Proprietor deny it, unless the other Party produce Proof of the Right.

IV. And be it specially enacted, provided, and declared, That after the Expiry of three Years from the Registration of the Verdict of the Jury, the said Verdict, and the Proceedings had relative thereto, shall not be reduced, set aside, reviewed, altered, or amended by the Court of Session, or any other Judicatory, for any Neglect of the Provisions herein contained, or for any Informality or Error, or for any other Reason or Pretext whatever; and if any Party shall pursue any Process of Reduction of the Verdict of the Jury, or other Process for setting the same aside, or for altering or amending the same, in the Court of Session, and shall fail in such Pursuit or Process, such Party prosecuting as aforesaid shall be liable to the other Party or Parties in full Costs of Suit.

After three Years Registration of the Verdict, it shall not be altered, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That after such Verdict and Determination as aforesaid, the Servitude of Thirlage, and all Services, Prestations, and Restrictions, pertaining or any way incident thereto, so valued by the said Jury, shall cease to be exigible from, or binding upon either or any of the Parties, but that in lieu thereof the said Proprietor or Proprietors, Occupier or Occupiers of the thirled Lands or Tenements, shall be bound and obliged to pay, and the Proprietor of the Mill to which the said Lands or Tenements are thirled, shall be bound and obliged to receive annually, at the Mill where the Multure under the former Servitude of Thirlage was in use to be paid, or at some other convenient Place to be fixed by the Jury, such Quantity or Amount of Corn or Grain, of such Kind or Sort, Kinds or Sorts as the said Jury shall in Manner aforesaid determine to be a just Compensation or Equivalent for such Right of Thirlage, or, in the Option of the Payer, the Value of such Corn or Grain in Money, according to the Value or Price put upon such Kind or Kinds of Corn or Grain by the Fiars of the County in which the Grain is payable, for the Year within which such Payment is due.

After Verdict all Restrictions to cease, and the Proprietor of the Mill shall be bound to receive the Compensation in Corn, or its Value in Money, at the Option of the Payer.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That such Verdict or Determination shall not be prevented or delayed by the Absence or Non-attendance of any Person interested in such Thirlage, but that the Jury shall proceed on such Evidence as shall be produced to them by any of the Parties then and there attending, and pronounce such Verdict and Determination as aforesaid, which shall be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all the Parties interested therein had attended, and been heard in relation thereto; but it is also provided, that if any of the Parties shall shew sufficient Reason for adjourning Verdict not to be delayed by Absence of any Persons interested, but the Day for taking it may be adjourned, on sufficient Reason being shewn.

adjourning the said Day appointed for taking the Verdict of the Jury, it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, to make such Adjournment to any Day within thirty Days from the Day first appointed, the Party praying an Adjournment always defraying all Expences thereby incurred.

Annual Payment in lieu of Thirlage to be made at Candlemas.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Annual Payment herein above directed to be made, in Lieu and Satisfaction of the said Servitude of Thirlage, shall be payable at the Term of Candlemas in each Year, the first Payment to be made at the Term of Candlemas, immediately subsequent to the Date of the Verdict or Determination of the said Jury; the amount of which first Payment shall be fixed by the said Jury, according to such Proportion as they shall judge reasonable on the whole Circumstances of the Case.

The Commutation for Thirlage to Mills let on Lease shall be full Compensation to the Lessees of the Mills; and where paid by Proprietors of Lands thirled and let on Lease, the Lessee of the Lands shall repay the Proprietor.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That where the Mill or Mills aforesaid, with the Rights of Thirlage thereto annexed, are let to Tenants under Tacks or Leases, the Annual Payment in Grain or Money, so as aforesaid to be paid as a Commutation or Equivalent for the Right of Thirlage annexed to such Mill, shall, and the same is hereby declared to be payable, during the Term or Currency of such Tack or Lease, to the Tenant or Lessee of such Mill or Mills, and such Annual Payment shall be to such Tenant or Lessee, Tenants or Lessees, full Compensation for or in Lieu and Satisfaction of all Multure, Mill Services, or other Rights or Servitudes pertaining or incident to the said Right of Thirlage let to him or them by such Tack or Lease, such Tack or Lease, or any Condition or Prestation therein contained notwithstanding; and where the Lands of the Servient Tenement or Estate thirled are let in Lease to Tenants, and the Proprietor shall pay the Annual Commutation or Equivalent, the Lessees shall in that Case be obliged to make Payment to the Proprietor of a Proportion of the said Annual Commutation or Equivalent, corresponding to the Rent of the Lands let in Lease compared with the total Amount of Rent payable by the whole Lands thirled, and that the said Proportion of the said Annual Commutation or Equivalent shall be recoverable by the Proprietor in the same Manner in which he is entitled to recover his Rent.

On Objection of Tenants paying one Fourth of the Rent of Lands thirled, a Jury shall proportion the Commutation.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Proportion by Rent shall be objected to by Tenants paying one Fourth or more of the Rent of the Lands thirled, the said Jury shall then divide according to the best of their Judgment, Information, and Belief, the different Parts of the Commutation to be paid by the several Tenants, according to the Value of Multures, Services, and Prestations legally exigible from the several respective Farms occupied or possessed by them; or if the Parties are not then prepared, the Sheriff or Steward Depute, or his Substitute, is hereby authorized and required, at the Request and Desire of the above-mentioned Proportion of the Tenants, again to convene the aforesaid Jury, in Manner and with Notice as above directed, and that on any Day within the Space of two Months from the Date of their first Award, when the said Jury shall meet and make such Division.

Commutation shall not give Claim to the Mill Proprietor to Relief from the Land Tax, nor affect Right of Freehold.

X. 'And whereas the Annual Payment to be adjudged under this Act to the Proprietor of a Mill, in lieu 'of the Multures, Mill Services, and other Rights, from which the Lands thirled are to be thereby relieved, 'is meant and understood to be of equal Value, and a full Compensation for the Discharge thereof, and in 'no ways to take from or diminish the Value of his Right as Proprietor,' it is further hereby enacted, and declared, That the Discharge of the Multures, Mill Services, and other Rights belonging to a Proprietor of a Mill, as to the Whole or any Part of the Lands astricted to it, and the Substitution of an Annual Payment by way of Compensation in place thereof, in the Manner above provided for, shall afford to such Proprietor no Ground or Pretence for claiming Relief from any Part of the Cess or Land Tax payable by him in respect thereof, either where such Mill stood separately valued in the Cess Books, or where it was included in a joint or cumulo Valuation with other Parts of his Property; and for the same Reason, that it shall not in anyways affect or impair any Right of Freehold, or Qualification to elect or be elected as a Member of Parliament, arising from or founded upon it, either where the Mill with its Mill Lands and Multures of itself affords such Qualification in respect of its Valuation or old Extent, or where it makes Part of a Tenement which forms such Qualification, either on its Valuation or as separately retoured of an Extent sufficient for that Purpose.

Thirlage of the Invecta et Illata may be purchased.

XI. 'And whereas there is a Kind of Thirlage known in the Law and Practice of Scotland, called a 'Thirlage of the Invecta et Illata, to which sundry Towns, Burghs, Burghs of Barony, Villages, or other 'Places, in that Part of the Kingdom, and the Inhabitants thereof, are subject, which Thirlage it is expe-'dient to allow to be purchased by the Persons subject to the same;' be it therefore enacted, That if any Inhabitant or Inhabitants of such Town, Burgh, Village, or Place, shall be desirous to purchase an Exemption from the said Servitude of Thirlage, and all and every the Services and Prestations incident thereto, to which the whole Town, Burgh, Village, or Place is liable, from the Proprietor of such Mill or Mills entitled to the same, it shall be lawful and competent to them to apply in Manner above mentioned, to the Sheriff or Steward Depute of the County or Stewartry in which such Town, Burgh, Village, or Place is situate, who shall take such Proceedings, and summon a Jury in such Manner as is herein-before particularly directed, which Jury shall by their Verdict fix and determine the full Value in Money of such Right of Thirlage in Perpetuity, on which Verdict and Determination the said Sheriff, or Steward Depute or Substitute, shall pronounce Decreet against the Person or Persons so petitioning or applying to him as aforesaid, for the Sum so fixed and determined by such Jury, on Payment of which to the Proprietor of the Mill, such Town, Burgh, Village, or Place, or such Inhabitant or Inhabitants thereof, formerly subject to such Thirlage, shall thenceforth be for ever freed and relieved from the same.

Such Thirlage may be purchased notwithstanding the Mill be held under a Deed of Entail on certain Conditions.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted, That such Proceeding may take place, and such Exemption be purchased in Manner aforesaid, notwithstanding the Mill or Mills, to which such Burgh, Town, or Village is thirled, be held by the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof under a Deed or Deeds of Entail, provided that the Price paid for the same, in virtue of the Determination of the Jury and Decreet of the Sheriff hereby directed, shall be settled and secured in like Manner as is directed in the Case of Superiorities sold to the Vassals Vassals of entailed Estates, by an Act, made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Tenure of Ward Holding in Scotland, and for converting the same into Blanch and Feu Holdings; and for regulating the Casualty of Non-entry in certain Cases; and for taking away the Casualties of Single and Life Rent Escheats incurred there by Horning and Denunciation for Civil Causes; and for giving to Heirs and Successors there a summary Process against Superiors; and for discharging the Attendance of Vassals at Head Courts there; and for ascertaining the Service of Tenants there; and for allowing Heirs of Tailzie there to sell Lands to the Crown, for erecting Buildings and making Settlements in the Highlands. 20 Geo. 2. c. 50.

XIII. 'And whereas it may happen, that a Mill and some of the Lands thirled to it may be within different Counties or Stewartries;' be it enacted, That in such Case the Application shall be made to the Sheriff or Stewart of the County or Stewartry in which the Mill is situated, before whom the Parties concerned who live without his Jurisdiction may be cited by virtue of Letters of Supplement in common Form. If Mill and Lands be within different Counties, Application to be made to the Sheriff where the Mill is situate.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby expressly enacted and declared, That nothing herein-before contained shall apply to the Case where a permanent Annual Payment, either in Money or Grain, is already fixed or established under the Name of Dry Multure, in lieu of the Servitude of Thirlage; but reserving nevertheless to either Party, as well the Proprietor of the Dominant as of the Survient Tenement, to apply in Manner herein-before directed for commutating or compensating by such fixed Annual Payment as herein-before mentioned, all Mill Services and other Prestations and Restrictions, if any such are exigible, over and above the Sum of Money or Grain payable in Name of Dry Multure as aforesaid. Act not to extend where an Annual Payment under the Name of Dry Multure is fixed.

An Act to explain and amend the Laws relative to Colliers in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.—[13th June 1799.]

'WHEREAS, before the passing of an Act of the fifteenth Year of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for altering, explaining, and amending several of the Acts of the Parliament of Scotland, respecting Colliers, Coal Bearers, and Salters, many Colliers, Coal Bearers, and Salters, were bound for Life to, and transferrable with, the Collieries and Salt Works where they worked; but by the said Act their Bondage was taken off, and they were declared to be free, under the Conditions therein mentioned; notwithstanding which, many Colliers and Coal Bearers still continue in a State of Bondage, from not having complied with the Provisions, or from having become subject to the Penalties, in the said Act: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all the Colliers in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, who were bound Colliers at the Time of passing the said Act, shall be and they are here hereby declared to be free from their Servitude, and in the same Situation in every Respect as if they had regularly obtained a Decree in the Manner directed by the said Act. 15 Geo. 3. c. 28. recited, and all Colliers in Scotland, bound at the Time of passing thereof, to be free from Servitude, as if they had obtained a Decree for that Purpose under that Act.

II. No Action to be competent for Money advanced, by or on Behalf of Coal Owners or Lessees, to Colliers, except for Support of their Families in case of Sickness.

V. 'And whereas there is a general Practice among the Coal Owners and Lessees of Coal, of advancing 'considerable Sums to their Colliers, or for their Behoof, much beyond what the Colliers are able to repay; 'which Sums are advanced for the Purpose of tempting them to enter into or continue their Engagements, 'notwithstanding the Sums so advanced are kept up as Debts against the Colliers;' be it therefore further enacted, That no Diligence or Action shall be competent for any Sum or Sums of Money hereafter to be lent or advanced to Colliers, or other Persons employed at the Collieries as aforesaid, by the Coal Owner or Lessee of any Colliery, or by any other Person or Persons on their Behalf, or for any Debts due by Colliers or other Persons as aforesaid, which shall be acquired by the said Coal Owners or Lessees, or by others on their Account, either previous to their Engagement, or during the Currency thereof, and in view of the same; excepting always such Sum or Sums as shall be advanced to any Collier, or other Persons employed at Collieries as aforesaid, during the Currency of his or her Service, for the Support of his or her Family, in case of Sickness.

Debts due by Colliers at passing this Act not extinguished, but may be assigned with Consent of the Debtors.

Vouchers of Debts to be recorded in the Sheriff Court Books, or held null.

VII. CAP. LXII.

37 Geo. 3. c. 103. 38 Geo. 3. c. 12, 44.

An Act to amend an Act made in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and two Acts made in the last Session of Parliament, for raising a Militia Force in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland.—[21st June 1799.]

37 Geo. 3 c. 103.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to raise and embody a Militia Force in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, his Majesty's Lieutenant for each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, within Scotland, 'was authorized, in Manner therein directed, to cause fair and true Lists to be made out in Writing of all the 'Men usually and at that Time dwelling within their respective Parishes and Places, between the Ages of 'nineteen and twenty-three inclusive; from which Lists, amended and returned as by the aforesaid Act di- 'rected, the several Regiments of Militia now serving in Scotland have since been ballotted and embodied: And 'whereas the original Lists are in several Places exhausted, and in others reduced to so small a Number as to 'bear hard upon such Parishes and Places; and it is expedient and just that such Persons as have since at- 'tained their nineteenth Year should have their Names included in the Lists of Persons liable to serve in the 'Militia; and it has been found from Experience that the aforesaid Period is too limited: May it therefore 'please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That his Majesty's Lieutenant for each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, together with any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, and on the Death or Removal, or in the Absence of his Majesty's Lieutenant, the Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, shall, on the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, meet at the same Borough or principal Town of the County, Stewartry, or Place, where they hitherto have usually met for the Purposes of the Militia Acts, and shall in like Manner and Form, as directed by the aforesaid Act, proceed to issue Directions for making out fair and true Lists in Writing of all the Men usually and at that Time dwelling within their respective Parishes and Places, from and after the Age of nineteen Years complete, and not exceeding the Age of thirty Years complete; and such Lists, being afterwards amended as the Case may require, and in the same Mode, and under the same Regulations as is by the aforesaid Act prescribed, the said Lieutenant, or failing of him, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, together with any one or more Justices of the Peace lawfully assembled in a General Meeting to be held for that Purpose, shall declare the said List so made up and amended to be the List of Persons liable to serve in the Militia, and shall cause the Names of all the Militia Men in each Parish, written or printed on distinct Pieces of Paper, being all as near as may be of equal Size, and rolled up in the same Manner, to be put into the Box or other

His Majesty's Lieutenant, with two or more Deputy Lieutenants, &c. shall meet on Aug. 1, 1799, and direct Lists to be made out of Men from 19 to 30 (instead of 23) Years of Age, and their Names to be put into a Box in which the Names of the Persons at pre-

Veſſel, in which the Names of all Perſons at preſent liable to ſerve in the Militia have been included, there to remain until a freſh Ballot ſhalll take place in ſuch Pariſh or Place, as preſcribed and directed by the aforeſaid Act.

Preſent liable to ſerve are included, till a freſh Ballot ſhall take place.

II. 'And whereas it may ſometimes happen, that Perſons alleged to be liable, in purſuance of this preſent 'Act, to ſerve in the Militia, but entitled, on Account of Age or other ſpecial Ground of Exemption, to 'have their Names ſtruck out of the Militia Liſt, may, from Ignorance or excuſable Neglect, fail to come 'forward in due Time to ſtate the ſame to the Subdiviſion Meeting appointed for amending and making 'up ſuch Liſts, and thereby become liable to ſerve in the Militia, provide a Subſtitute or pay the Penalty;' be it enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Perſons failing or neglecting as aforeſaid, within three Calendar Months from the Day on which ſuch Subdiviſion Meeting aforeſaid has been held, to ſtate by Petition ſuch Cauſe of Exemption to a General Meeting of Lieutenants and Juſtices of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, who are hereby authorized and empowered, if they ſhall ſee Cauſe, to order the Name of ſuch Perſon to be ſtruck out of the Militia Liſt, and his Name to be taken out of the Ballot Box: Provided always, That the ſaid Lieutenants or Juſtices, aſſembled as aforeſaid, ſhall be empowered, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, at the ſame Time that they ſhall allow ſuch Cauſe of Exemption, to impoſe and levy from ſuch Perſon ſuch Fine as they may judge, upon the whole Circumſtance of the Caſe, adequate to the Neglect of the Individual, ſuch Fine in no Caſe to exceed the Sum of ten Pounds Sterling; which Sum the ſaid General Meeting are hereby authorized and directed to apply to the Purpoſe of providing Subſtitutes, in like Manner as they are directed by this and the other Militia Acts to apply the Penalties of Perſons ballotted, but refuſing to ſerve or provide a Subſtitute: Provided alſo, That no ſuch Perſon ſhall have his Name ſtruck out of the ſaid Liſt, or taken from the Ballot Box, until he ſhall have paid into the Hands of the Clerk of the ſaid Meeting the Fine awarded againſt him.

Perſons from Ignorance not claiming Exemption at the Subdiviſion Meeting may, within three Months, apply to a General Meeting, who may order their Names to be ſtruck out of the Liſt, but may fine them, not exceeding 10l.

III. 'And whereas it has been found from Experience, that the Penalty of ten Pounds Sterling, directed 'to be paid by Perſons ballotted, but refuſing to ſerve, or to find Subſtitutes in their Room, has proved in'ſufficient to enable the Deputy Lieutenants to provide Subſtitutes for them, and Doubts have ariſen in 'that Caſe as to the Mode of applying and accounting for the ſaid Penalties;' be it therefore enacted, That the ſaid Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices, aſſembled in a General Meeting held in purſuance of this or any other Act or Acts now in Force reſpecting the Militia, ſhall order the Clerk of the ſaid Meeting to make up an Account of all the Penalties incurred within the ſaid County, Stewartry, City, or Place, and ſhall direct the Amount of the ſame to be forthwith, and as quickly as poſſible, applied in providing (ſo far as it will go) Subſtitutes to ſerve in the Militia; and where the total Amount of ſuch Penalties ſhall be found inadequate to the Purpoſe of providing the full Number of Subſtitutes required, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid General Meeting, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to allot the ſaid Subſtitutes ſo provided to the ſeveral deficient Pariſhes from which the aforeſaid Penalties ariſe, as far as poſſible, and that either by ballotting which of the ſaid Pariſhes ſhall be relieved by the Allotment of the ſaid Subſtitutes, or in ſuch other Mode as ſhall appear to the ſaid General Meeting juſt and equitable, and beſt calculated for laying the Burthen of providing the remaining Number of Men ſtill deficient as equally as poſſible over the ſaid Pariſhes, and ſhall proceed to order and direct a Ballot to be held in the ſame Manner and Form as preſcribed by the ſaid Acts, by ſuch Pariſhes as they ſhall declare or appoint to remain ſtill liable to make good the Deficiencies: Provided always, That the Commanding Officers of the reſpective Regiments of Militia ſhall be, and they are hereby empowered, at the End of every three Months from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, if neceſſary, to require, by written Notice ſent to the Clerk of the General Meetings for each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, furniſhing Militia Men to ſuch Regiment, a General or Subdiviſion Meeting to be called and held, as the Caſe may render neceſſary, for the Purpoſe of ſupplying the Number of Men ſtill deficient, from ſuch County, Stewartry, City, or Place, and the ſaid Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, or Juſtices, ſhall, and they are hereby required, within ten Days after the Receipt of ſuch Notice, to hold ſuch General or Subdiviſion Meeting for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, in order that the full Number of Militia due by ſuch County, Stewartry, City, or Place, may be furniſhed to the ſaid Regiment as ſpeedily as poſſible.

The General Meeting to order their Clerk to make up an Account of Penalties, and direct the Amount to be applied in providing Subſtitutes; and where inſufficient to provide the Whole, they ſhall allot thoſe provided, and direct a Ballot by the Pariſhes they ſhall declare liable for the Deficiencies.

Commanding Officers of Militia Regiments may, every three Months, require a General or Subdiviſion Meeting to be called for ſupplying deficient Men, which ſhall be held within 10 Days.

IV. 'And whereas by the ſaid Act paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, 'it is enacted, That every Perſon choſen by Ballot according to the Directions of the ſaid Act (not being 'one of the People called Quakers) refuſing or neglecting to appear to take the Oath and ſerve in the 'Militia, or to provide a Subſtitute, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds Sterling, and whenever any 'Ballot ſhall take place in the ſame Pariſh or Place, be liable to ſerve again or provide a Subſtitute, and in 'Default of Payment of ſuch Penalty, or for Want of ſufficient Effects whereon to levy the ſame, the Name 'of ſuch Perſon ſhall be entered upon the Roll for which he was ballotted, and he ſhall be compelled to ſerve 'in like Manner as any other Perſon who ſhould be then ballotted for would be compellable to ſerve, and ſhall 'be ſubject to the ſame Puniſhments for afterwards abſconding or deſerting, as he would have been ſubject 'to in caſe he had appeared and been duly ſworn and enrolled as a Militia Man:' Be it enacted, That whenever any ſuch Perſon ſhall have his Name drawn a ſecond Time on any Ballot, it ſhall be in his Power in place of ſerving perſonally or providing a Subſtitute, on Payment of a further Penalty of five Pounds Sterling, to have his Name ſtruck out of the Liſt of Militia Men altogether, and be for ever relieved from ſerving in the Militia; which further Penalty ſhall be recovered and applied by the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices, in like Manner as all other Penalties are directed to be recovered and applied by the preſent or any other Act of Parliament relative to the Militia.

Perſons drawn a ſecond Time by Ballot (under the Directions of § 21. of 37 G. 3. c. 103.) on Payment of a further Penalty of 5l. may be for ever relieved from ſerving in the Militia.

No Notices to Militia Men to attend, shall extend beyond 14 Days from the Ballot; and all Men failing to attend, shall forfeit their Pay till joining the Regiment, and may be seized as Deserters.

V. 'And whereas it has in some Instances been the Practice of the Deputy Lieutenants, or other Persons 'authorized by the Lord Lieutenant, to indulge the several Militia Men ballotted to serve with a longer 'Leave of Absence than is necessary; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Notice served upon any Militia Man ballotted as aforesaid to attend at the Time and Place specified in the said Order, as directed by the Acts now in Force relative to the Militia, shall extend beyond fourteen Days from the Date of such Ballot; and all Militia Men failing to attend at such Time and Place so specified, shall, over and above the other Pains and Penalties already imposed in such Cases, forfeit the Pay due from the Day of their being so ballotted till the Day on which they shall actually join the Regiment to which they belong, and be liable to be seized and punished as Deserters: Provided also, That the Clerk of such General or Subdivision Meeting, at which such Men shall have been ballotted, shall forthwith transmit to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment for which any Militia Man is ballotted to serve, a Note of the Name of each Militia Man, the Day on which he has been ballotted, and that on which he has been ordered to attend; and every Clerk refusing or wilfully neglecting to transmit such Notice as aforesaid, shall be liable to a Penalty of twenty Pounds Sterling, to be recovered in like Manner as any other Penalties are directed to be recovered by the said recited Act.

Clerk of the Meeting shall send to the Commanding Officer the Names of the Men ballotted to serve in the Regiment, &c. on Penalty of 20l.

Allowances to Schoolmasters, and others employed in the Execution of the Militia Act, shall be submitted to the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, who may grant a Warrant for Payment.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Allowances for the Trouble of any Schoolmaster, Constable, Clerk, or other Officer employed in the Execution of the Militia Acts, shall, besides being previously certified by the Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, or Lieutenant of the County or Stewartry, as directed by the Acts now in Force, be submitted to the Consideration of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, who are hereby authorized and empowered to restrict these Claims to such Sums as they shall think reasonable, and to grant a Warrant for Payment thereof out of the Revenues of the Land Tax, assessed Taxes, or consolidated Duties of Customs and Excise, or any of them, which they shall think most proper to apply to this Service.

When any Militia Man shall appear to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment unfit to serve, he may, with the Approbation of the Commanding Officer of the District, reject him, and another shall be chosen by Ballot.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when any Militia Man, Volunteer, or Substitute, furnished and approved by any General or District Meeting of Lieutenancy, shall appear to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment in which he is called upon to serve, unfit, from Infirmity, Size, or other sufficient Cause, to serve as a Militia Man, it shall be lawful for the said Commanding Officer, with the Approbation in Writing of the General or Commanding Officer of the Military District within which such Regiment shall happen to be stationed, to reject or discharge such Person as unfit to carry Arms in the Militia, and upon transmitting Notice of the Discharge, with a Copy of the Approbation of the General or Commanding Officer aforesaid, to the Deputy Lieutenants of the Parish or District from which the said Militia Man, Volunteer, or Substitute, shall have been furnished, the Deputy Lieutenants shall forthwith cause another Person, able and fit for Service, to be chosen by Ballot in Place of the Person discharged as aforesaid.

39 Geo. 3. c. 35.

Persons enrolled in Volunteer Corps or Associations in Scotland, not liable to serve or provide a Substitute in the Militia.

Copy of Muster Roll of Persons now serving, to be transmitted to the County Lieutenant on or before Aug. 1, 1799.

VIII. 'And whereas an Act was made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for exempting 'during the present War, Persons serving in Volunteer Corps and Associations from being ballotted for the Militia, under certain Conditions: And whereas it is expedient and necessary that the said Act should extend to 'all Persons serving in Volunteer Corps and Associations in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland,' be it enacted, That every Person enrolled, or to be enrolled, and serving in any Volunteer Corps, or any Corps or Body of Men associated for the Defence of any City, Town, or Place, and for maintaining publick Tranquillity and good Order within the same, whether of Infantry or Cavalry, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, which now are, or shall be raised in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, shall be exempt from being liable to serve personally in the said Militia, or to provide a Substitute; and that all the Powers, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions in the aforesaid Act contained, shall extend to all such Volunteer Corps or Associations in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act: Provided always, That the Copy of the Muster Roll of the Persons now enrolled and serving in any such Corps or Associations may and shall be transmitted to the Lieutenant of the County on or before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

[See post. c. 77. as to Scotland.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for the Encouragement of the Pilchard Fishery, an additional Bounty of one Shilling and Sixpence was allowed for every Cask or Vessel of Pilchards, containing fifty Gallons, which should be exported between the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, and the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight; which Bounty was further continued by another Act, of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for the further Term of seven Years, from the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight: And whereas in the Act made in the thirty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for transferring the Management of the Salt Duties to the Commissioners of Excise, and for repealing the Duties on Salt, and the Drawbacks, Allowances, and Bounties paid thereout, and for granting other Duties, Drawbacks, Allowances, and Bounties thereon, Provision was not made for the said Bounty of one Shilling and Sixpence; and it is expedient to grant such additional Bounty as is herein-after mentioned: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for every Cask or Vessel of Pilchards, containing fifty Gallons, which has been duly exported from Great Britain to Parts beyond the Seas, since the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or which shall hereafter be so exported, until and upon the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand eight hundred and five, and for and in respect whereof the Person or Persons exporting the same shall be entitled to the Bounty of seven Shillings, under or by virtue of the said Act of the thirty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, an additional Bounty of one Shilling and Sixpence shall be paid and payable to such Person and Persons so entitled to the said Bounty of seven Shillings, at such Times, in such Manner, and by such Person and Persons, and out of such Monies, as the said Bounty of seven Shillings is by the said last mentioned Act directed to be paid.

31 Geo. 3. c. 45.

37 Geo. 3. c. 94.

38 Geo. 3. c. 89.

For every Cask of Pilchards containing 50 Gallons, exported from Great Britain from October 10, 1798, to June 24, 1805, and entitled to the Bounty of 7s. (under 38 Geo. 3. c. 89. § 2.) an additional Bounty of 1s. 6d. shall be paid.

II. 'And whereas it may sometimes be convenient that Pilchards should be shipped and exported directly to the British West India Islands and the Mediterranean in Casks of thirty-two Gallons; and it is expedient to allow a Bounty in due Proportion to the present Bounties, on such Pilchards so exported, for all such Pilchards so shipped and exported;' be it therefore enacted, That for all Pilchards which shall be duly shipped and exported directly to any of the British West India Islands, or to any Port or Place in the Mediterranean, in Casks of thirty-two Gallons or upwards, there shall be allowed a Bounty in due Proportion to the several Bounties now payable, and which by this Act may become payable, for and in respect of Pilchards exported from Great Britain, in Casks containing fifty Gallons; any Thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, That no such Bounty shall be paid or allowed, unless all and singular the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions by any former Law established, for or in respect of Fish exported in order to obtain the Bounty, shall have been fully complied with.

For Pilchards exported directly to the British West Indies or the Mediterranean, in Casks of 32 Gallons, or upwards, a Bounty shall be paid in Proportion to those exported in Casks containing 50 Gallons;

III. 'And whereas it has been a Practice to export Pilchards, in some Instances, in Casks commonly called Pilchard Hogsheads, containing less than fifty Gallons; and it might be inconvenient, in such Cases, to withhold the Bounty in Proportion to the Quantity of Fish which has been exported, or which may be exported before the first Day of June one thousand eight hundred;' be it therefore enacted, That for all Pilchards which, since the said tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, have been duly exported from Great Britain to Parts beyond the Seas, in Casks commonly called Pilchard Hogsheads, or which, at any Time on or before the first Day of June one thousand eight hundred, shall be so exported in such Casks, a Bounty shall be allowed in Proportion to the several Bounties now payable, or which by this Act may become payable, for or in respect of Pilchards exported from Great Britain, in Casks containing fifty Gallons; any Thing in this Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

as also for all Pilchards exported in Pilchard Hogsheads, from Oct. 10, 1798, to June 1, 1800.

IV. 'And whereas it has been the Practice to allow Pilchards and other Fish to be exported upon Bounty from Ports and Places not being lawful Quays, and it is expedient to continue such Practice,' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them, to allow Pilchards and other Fish to be exported, for the Purpose of obtaining the Bounty, from such convenient Port or Place as they shall deem proper; any Thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

The Commissioners of Excise may allow Fish to be exported from any Place.

V. 'And whereas by the said Act of the thirty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign it was enacted, That before any such Salt as is in that Behalf in the said Act mentioned should be delivered free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish, the Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners thereof, or Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Work from whence the same was to be so delivered, or the

'Merchant or Merchants for whose Account or on whose Order the same should be delivered, should give 'such sufficient Bond or Security as in the said Act was in that Behalf directed that all such Salt and every 'Part thereof should (the Dangers of Enemies only excepted) be duly delivered into the Custody and Pos-'session of the Fish Curer or Fish Curers for or to whom the same was to be consigned or sent; and that no 'Part of such Salt should, before the same should be so delivered into the Custody or Possession of such Fish 'Curer or Fish Curers as aforesaid, be sold or delivered for Home Trade or Consumption, or otherwise 'fraudulently disposed of in Great Britain: And whereas the Salt Works at which Salt is made, and the 'entered Warehouses or Storehouses or Lofts in that Behalf mentioned in the said Act, and from which such 'Salt is by the said Act authorized to be delivered to be used and employed for the Purpose of curing or 'preserving Fish, are sometimes situated at a Distance from the Sea Coast and from the Port at which such 'Salt delivered from such Salt Works is intended to be shipped and put on board the Ships or Vessels in 'which the same is intended to be carried and removed Coastwise for Delivery to or for the Fish Curers to 'or for whom the same is to be consigned or sent, and such Salt is commonly carried and conveyed from 'such Salt Works in Flats, Barges, Boats, or Vessels, down Rivers to such Port, and it is therefore expe-'dient that in any such Case, in lieu and instead of such Bond or Security as is above mentioned, such 'Bonds or Securities shall be given as are herein-after in that Behalf directed;' be it therefore enacted, That when and so often as any Maker of Salt, or Refiner of Rock Salt, or Proprietor of any Salt Work, shall have Occasion to deliver any Salt from his or her entered Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, at his or her Salt Works, to be used and employed in curing and preserving Fish, and such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, shall be situate at a Distance from the Sea Coast, and from the Port at which such Salt is intended to be shipped or put on board any Ship or Vessel, to be therein carried or removed Coastwise for Delivery to the Fish Curers for or to whom the same is to be consigned or sent, and such Salt is intended to be carried or conveyed in any Flat, Barge, Boat, or Vessel, from such Salt Works, or from any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, down any River to any such Port, then and in every such Case, in lieu and instead of such Bond or Security as was in the said Act directed, the Makers or Refiners thereof, or Proprietors of the Salt Works from whence the same is to be so delivered, or the Merchants for whose Account or on whose Order the same shall be delivered, shall give sufficient Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in Treble the Amount of the Duty of the Salt so intended to be delivered for the Purposes of curing or preserving Fish, (in which Bond or Security the Master or Owner of the Flat, Barge, Boat, or Vessel, in which the Salt is to be so carried or conveyed, shall join,) that all such Salt, and every Part thereof, shall with all due Diligence and Dispatch be duly carried and conveyed in such Flat, Barge, Boat, or Vessel to such Port at which the same is so intended to be shipped for the Purpose aforesaid; and that all such Salt shall, immediately on the Arrival at such Port, be laden and put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same is to be carried and removed Coastwise for Delivery to the Fish Curer or Fish Curers for or to whom the same is to be consigned or sent, and that no Part of such Salt shall, before the same shall be so laden and put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same is to be so carried and removed Coastwise for such Delivery as aforesaid, be sold or delivered for Home Trade or Consumption, or otherwise fraudulently disposed of in Great Britain; and also that, immediately on the Arrival of such Flat, Barge, Boat, or Vessel at such Port, such Bond or Security shall be given as is herein-after mentioned.

When the Warehouse from which Salt is to be delivered for curing Fish is distant from the Port of shipping, and is intended to be carried down any River thereto, Bond, as herein specified, to be given instead of the Security directed by 38 Geo. 3. c. 89. § 68, &c.

How such Bonds shall be discharged.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every such Bond or Security for such due Carriage and Conveyance of such Salt to the Port at which the same shall be intended to be shipped as aforesaid, and for the other Matters herein-before directed to be contained in such Bond or Security, shall be cancelled and discharged, upon the Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners of the Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Works from whence the Salt was so delivered, or the Merchant or Merchants on whose Account or to whose Order such Salt shall be so delivered as aforesaid, producing to and leaving with the proper Officer of Excise a Certificate, under the Hand of such other Officer of Excise as shall be authorized or employed to give and grant the same, testifying that all and every Part of the Salt mentioned in such Bond or Security has been, with all due Diligence and dispatch, duly carried and conveyed in such Flat, Barge, or Vessel, as aforesaid, to such Port as aforesaid, and that the same was immediately, on the Arrival at such Port, laden and put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same was to be carried and removed Coastwise, for Delivery to the Fish Curer or Fish Curers for or to whom the same was consigned or sent, and that such Bond or Security has been given as is herein-after directed, for the due Delivery of such Salt into the Custody and Possession of the Fish Curer, and the other Matters directed to be contained in such Bond: Provided always, That such Certificate shall be produced to and left with such proper Officer of Excise within one Month next after the Day on which such Salt shall have been delivered out of the Warehouse or Storehouse, or Warehouses or Storehouses belonging to such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, as aforesaid.

On the Arrival of a Vessel at the Port where Salt is to be shipped to be sent Coastwise to the Fish Curer, Bond to be given that it shall not be otherwise disposed of.

VII. And be it further enacted, That immediately upon the Arrival of any such Flat, Barge, Boat, or Vessel, at the Port at which such Salt is intended to be shipped, or put on board any Ship or Vessel, to be therein carried or removed Coastwise, for Delivery to the Fish Curer or Fish Curers for or to whom the same is to be consigned or sent, the Merchant or Merchants, on whose Account or to whose Order the same shall be delivered, shall give sufficient Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in Treble the Amount of the Duty of the Salt so intended to be delivered for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish, (in which Bond or Security the Master or Owner of the Ship or Vessel in which the Salt is to be carried or conveyed shall join,) that all such Salt, and every Part thereof, shall (the Danger of Enemies only excepted) be duly delivered into the Custody and Possession of the Fish Curer or Fish Curers for or to whom the same is to be consigned or sent, and that no Part of such Salt shall, before the same shall be delivered into the Custody or Possession of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers as aforesaid, be sold or delivered for Home Trade or Consumption, or otherwise fraudulently disposed of in Great Britain.

How such Bonds shall be discharged.

And be it further enacted, That every such Bond or Security herein-before directed to be given for the due Delivery of any such Salt into the Custody and Possession of any such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and for the other Matters herein-before directed to be contained in such Bond, shall be cancelled and discharged, upon the Merchant or Merchants, on whose Account or to whose Order any such Salt shall have been so delivered as aforesaid, producing to and leaving with the proper Officer of Excise a Certificate, under the Hand of such other Officer of Excise as shall be authorized to give and grant the same, testifying that all and every Part of the Salt mentioned in such Bond or Security has been duly delivered into the Custody or Possession of the Fish Curer or Fish Curers for whom the same was intended, or to whom the same was consigned or sent, and that Bond or Security has been given by or on the Part of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, that all such Salt sent or consigned to him, her, or them, and delivered into his, her, or their Custody, shall be used and employed in curing and preserving Fish: Provided always, That such last mentioned Certificate shall be produced to and left with such proper Officer of Excise, within three Months next after the Day on which such Salt shall have been so shipped or put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same is to be carried or removed Coastwise, for such Delivery to the Fish Curer or Fish Curers as aforesaid.

Within 12 Months after Importation, warehoused Foreign Salt may be taken out, Duty free, at certain Ports, for Exportation to Newfoundland, in Vessels of not less than 40 Tons, and in Quantity exceeding 50 Bushels, on Bond, as directed by 38 Geo 3. c. 89. § 10, &c.

IX. 'And whereas, under and by virtue of the said Act made in the thirty-eighth Year of his present 'Majesty's Reign, Foreign Salt may be imported into Great Britain, and put into Import Warehouses, 'Storehouses, or Cellars, under, subject, and according to such Conditions, Rules, and Regulations as are 'in the said Act in that Behalf provided: And whereas it is expedient to allow any such Foreign Salt to be 'taken from and out of any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, at the Ports of Poole, Dartmouth, Fal-'mouth, and Glasgow, to be exported to Newfoundland, for the Purpose herein-after mentioned;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to or for any Person or Persons, within twelve Months after the Importation and Landing thereof, to take, free of Duty, for the Purpose of immediately exporting the same, in any Ship or Vessel not of less Burthen than forty Tons, to Newfoundland, for curing Cod Fish, Ling, or Hake, to be there caught, any Quantity exceeding fifty Bushels at a Time, of Foreign Salt, from and out of any Import Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, at either of the Ports of Poole, Dartmouth, Falmouth, or Glasgow, in which the same has been put according to the Regulations of the said Act, upon the Person or Persons so taking out any such Salt first giving the like Bond or Security as is in or by the said Act required and directed to be taken, for or in respect of Salt delivered free of Duty for immediate Exportation; save and except that every such Bond or Security, so to be taken in pursuance of this Act, shall be in Treble the Amount of the Duty by that Act imposed for or in respect of imported Salt, not being of the Product or Manufacture of Great Britain; and the giving or entering into such Bond or Security, together with the Exportation of such Salt to Newfoundland as aforesaid, shall vacate the former Bond or Security which shall have been given for Payment of the Duties with which such Foreign Salt was charged, or to which the same was liable, so far as such last mentioned Bond or Security relates to such Duty for or in respect of the Quantity of Salt so taken out of such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, and exported to Newfoundland as aforesaid: Provided always, That such last mentioned Bond shall be and remain in full Force and Effect as to all the Salt specified therein, or to which the same shall relate, except the particular Quantity or Quantities thereof so taken out and exported to Newfoundland as aforesaid.

An Act for better regulating the Manner of carrying Slaves, in British Vessels, from the Coast of Africa.—[12th July 1799.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the shipping and carrying Slaves, in British Vessels, from the 'Coast of Africa:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of August next after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Master or other Person taking or having the Charge or Command of any British Ship or Vessel whatever, which shall clear out from any Port of this Kingdom, to take or have on board, or to convey, carry, bring, or transport Slaves from the Coast of Africa to any Part beyond Sea, in any such Ship or Vessel, unless such Ship or Vessel shall, at the Time of her so clearing out, have been entered for such Purpose at the Custom House of the Port from whence such Ship or Vessel cleared out.

From Aug. 1, 1799, no British Vessel shall carry Slaves from the Coast of Africa, unless entered for that Purpose at the Port of Clearance.

II. And be it further enacted, That in every such Ship or Vessel, the whole Space between Decks shall be allotted and properly prepared for the Reception of such Slaves; and that after any such Ship or Vessel shall have taken two third Parts of her Complement of Slaves on board, in the Proportion herein-after to be limited, no Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Stores, shall ever be stowed or put in any such Place in which any such Slaves shall be.

The whole Space between Decks of such Vessels shall be allotted for the Slaves; and after two Thirds of the Complement of Slaves are taken on board, no Stowage shall be put into the Place allotted for them.

III. And be it further enacted, That in every such Ship or Vessel, the said Space between Decks so allotted for the Reception of Slaves shall be, in every Part throughout the whole Length and Breadth thereof, of the full and complete perpendicular Height of five Feet, measuring from the upper Surface of the Lower Deck to the under Surface of the Upper Deck.

The Space between Decks allotted for Slaves shall be five Feet high.

IV. 'And whereas Ships or Vessels having only one Deck, are sometimes used for shipping and carrying 'Slaves from the Coast of Africa,' be it further enacted, That in all such Vessels a false Deck shall be fixed in the Hold for the Reception of the Slaves; which shall be taken and considered as her Lower Deck for the Purposes of this Act.

Vessels of one Deck shall have a false Deck fixed in the Hold.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel shall be permitted to clear out from any Port in Great Britain, for the Purpose of shipping and carrying Slaves from Africa, until the proper Officer of the Customs at such Port shall have examined and admeasured such Ship or Vessel, and shall have certified in Writing to the Collector of his Majesty's Customs at such Port, the Height between Decks, and also the extreme Length and Breadth, in Feet and Inches, of the Lower Deck of the said Vessel; which Length and Breadth being multiplied together, the Product shall be deemed and considered to be the true superficial Contents of the said Deck; and the said Contents so obtained, being divided by Eight, the Quotient in whole Numbers shall express the greatest Number of Slaves which the said Vessels shall be permitted to have on board at any one Time (for which Certificate he shall be entitled to demand and receive the Sum of ten Shillings from the Master or Owner of the said Vessel); and the said Certificate, verified as to the Calculation of the Number to be taken on board by the Examination and Signature of the Collector, shall be annexed to the Clearance of the said Vessel, and shall be produced therewith to the Collector or Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Customs, at every Port in the West Indies or America, belonging to his Majesty, at which the said Vessel shall arrive, before any Slave or Slaves shall be permitted to be landed out of the said Vessel at any such Port.

No Vessel shall clear out till the proper Officer of the Customs shall have admeasured it as herein described, and certified the same to the Collector.

Certificate shall be annexed to the Clearance, and produced before any Slave shall be landed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every such Ship or Vessel, previous to her being cleared out, shall have painted in White or Yellow Letters, of a Length not less than four Inches, upon a Black Ground, on some conspicuous Part of her Stern (provided there shall be sufficient Space for that Purpose, but if not, in Letters as large as the Space will admit) the Words 'Allowed to carry Slaves,' the Number of Slaves expressed in the Licence annexed to the Clearance of the said Vessel being added thereto, in Figures of the same Length and Colour.

Vessels shall have painted on their Stern the Words 'Allowed to carry Slaves,' and the Number they are permitted to carry.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Master or other Person taking or having the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel, to take or have on board at any one Time, or to convey, carry, bring, or transport Slaves from the Coast of Africa to any Part beyond the Sea, in any such Ship or Vessel, in any greater Number than in the Proportion of one such Slave for every eight square Feet of the superficial Contents of the Lower Deck of such Ship or Vessel, ascertained as herein-before directed; and if any such Master or other Person taking or having the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel, shall act contrary hereto, such Master or other Person as aforesaid shall forfeit and pay the Sum of thirty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, for each and every such Slave exceeding in Number the Proportions herein-before limited, one Moiety whereof shall go to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety thereof shall go to any Person or Persons who shall first sue for the same.

Masters of Vessels shall forfeit 30l. for every Slave exceeding the Proportion of one Slave for every eight square Feet of the Lower Deck.

VIII. 'And whereas great Mortality has been found to occur among the Slaves from their having been 'subjected to a Confinement more than usually close and severe in consequence of the Weakness of the 'Crews

No greater Number of Slaves than in the Proportion of ten to each Person composing the Crew shall be taken on board.

'Crews of some of the Vessels employed in transporting them:' Be it further enacted, under the Penalty aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful to carry away from the Coast of Africa, on board any such Ship or Vessel, any greater Number of Slaves than in the Proportion of ten to each of the Mariners or other free Persons composing the Crew, who shall, at the Time of clearing Outwards for the Voyage, belong to the said Vessel, and be actually serving on board thereof; and that all such Seamen shall so remain until the Arrival of the said Vessel at her first Port of Delivery in the West Indies, (Death and unavoidable Accidents only excepted).

If more than two Fifths of the Slaves be Children, five of the Surplus shall be deemed equal to four Slaves.

IX. Provided always, That if there shall be in any such Ship or Vessel any more than two fifth Parts of the Slaves who shall be Children, and who shall not exceed four Feet four Inches in Height, then every five such Children over and above the aforesaid Proportion of two Fifths, shall be deemed and taken to be equal to four of the said Slaves, within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

No Cargo of Slaves, of what ever Dimensions the Vessel, shall exceed 400.

X. Provided always, That the Number of Slaves taken or to be taken on board any Vessel, of any Measurement whatsoever, in consequence of the Regulations and Allowances of this Act, shall in no case exceed four hundred.

Act shall not extend to the taking of Slaves on board in cases of Shipwreck, Mutiny, or any Distress of the Vessel.

XI. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the Case of a Ship taking on board any Number of Slaves that shall be found shipwrecked, or from on board any other Ship or Vessel where, by reason of Mutiny or Insurrection among the Slaves or the Crew, or by Failure of Hands, or by any actual Distress of the Vessel, the Master or Commander shall be disabled from governing the Ship or continuing the Voyage, the Proof of which shall lie upon the Master or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel so taking on board such Slaves.

Masters of Vessels shall not remove False Decks for the Reception of Slaves, till such Slaves are landed, on Penalty of 200l.

XII. And be it further enacted, That after the Surveying Officer shall have examined and measured any Ship or Vessel, as herein-before directed, it shall not be lawful for the Master or Owner thereof to remove, or cause to be removed, any Floor or False Deck which shall have been fixed in the Hold for the Reception of Slaves, as herein-before directed, except for the Purpose of loading or unloading his said Vessel on the outward-bound Voyage, or other unavoidable Necessity; or to do, or cause or suffer to be done, any other Matter or Thing whereby the Height of the Places or Apartments allotted for the Reception of Slaves shall be diminished, until all the Slaves which shall have been taken on board such Ship or Vessel shall have been discharged or landed therefrom, under the Penalty of two hundred Pounds for every such Offence.

Masters of Vessels, before they land any Slaves in the West Indies, shall give in a written Declaration to the Officer of the Customs of the greatest Number of Slaves permitted to be carried in such Vessels, and if they land Slaves contrary hereto, shall forfeit 500l.
